Judging: Judging will be done by outside beauty professionals. Day staff will find judging panel for day competition, and evening staff will find judging panel for evening competition.

Winners: We will be awarding a prize to the hairstylist and makeup artist of the first-place team only, and certificates of honorable mentions will be handed out to the second and third place teams.

Refreshments: Please inform students we will be doing a potluck on competition day. If they wish to eat, please ask that they also bring a dish.

Family and friends: Please invite students to have their family and friends come watch the competition.

Rules: Please take note of the following rules below, and make sure the students are fully aware so that the competition runs smoothly:

- Students will form their own groups. We will ask that makeup is done by estheticians, and hair is done by cosmetologists. Once every esthetician has been assigned to a team, a cosmetologist may fill the makeup artist spot if more teams remain. Because daytime is so full, you may allow them to have two cosmetologists doing the hair in one team so that everyone can participate.
- Each team will receive one practice day where they will be marked off of the books together to plan and practice their look. Day and evening staff will each assign one instructor to facilitate this. (Please make sure students know that if they are absent on their practice day, they will NOT receive a second one, so they should plan accordingly)
- Teams should be chosen by 3.13.19 so that all will have a chance to be marked off. One instructor in the day, and one in the evening should facilitate this.
- While teams may utilize spray colors, or things of that nature, they will not be permitted to color their model's hair on their practice day, or the day of the competition.
- Costumes do not have to follow our PIC dress code, but they should still be in good taste, as we may have children watching. Please have them see Ms. Lisa or Ms. Barbie for approval if there is any doubt.
- If there are any problems once the groups have been made (i.e. one team member realizes they will not be here for competition day) please do your best to switch things around so that everyone can participate. But, make sure the students know when they are forming their teams, that if this does happen we may not be able to place them with another one.
- Day staff will pick the music for the day runway, and evening staff will pick for the evening. One instructor should facilitate this, as well as working with teams on their walk.
- Inspiration boards must be submitted to the judges after the runway. If they do not have their board, they will not be eligible to win first place.
- All teams will be responsible for set up and clean-up of their area. Day staff will be responsible for helping with set up, and refreshing the set up for evening. Evening staff will be responsible for cleaning up after competition.
