NOTE: The Institution reserves the right to change tuition and fees or make subject changes or revisions when necessary, and make substitutions in kits as required. Students will be notified of price changes or substitutions in kits at the Program Orientation, which is held the Saturday before each start date. The payment of monies owed to the institution may be made by cash, credit card, debit card, money order, check, third party or Title IV funds.

***NOTE: Books & Supplies can be purchased separately on the open market place. Students can opt-out and buy them at the vendor of their choice. Any opened or used items cannot be returned.

In accordance with federal tax credit legislation, the institution will mail form 1098-T reporting qualified tuition and related expenses - to student's current address by the end of January. This information will also be reported to the IRS. Students should check with their tax preparer to determine eligibility for federal educational credit and the amount of deduction.
